

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Former Vice President Adlai E. Stevenson ill here. May be taken to Presbyterian Hospital.

$600 Amati violin stolen by padded brick men from Rudolph Wurlitzer Co., 329 S. Wabash av.

Rabeillo Caudelise, 2626 W. Huron st., dropped dead in movie show, 2806 W. Chicago av.

Mrs. Mary Dobry exposes alleged $25,000 swindling plot of hubby's in separate maintenance suit.

Encourage husband to meet other women, advice of Mrs. Havelock Ellis, famous novelist, as means of keeping love.

Former Mayor Fred A. Busse's illness taken serious turn. Consultation of physicians held.

Miss Martha Bred, 4317 Alta Vista terrace, found dead in yard. Believed to have jumped from second-story window.

Mrs. N. S. Werts, Evanston, appointed policewoman of town.

Reuben Robinson, 5923 Lafayette st., killed and John Carlson injured by bursting flywheel at Carbo Steel Post Co., Chicago Heights.

Woman suspected of theft at home of T. H. Mertage, 3938 Indiana av. Police claim man would have taken different loot.

Prof. Allen Hoben, University of Chicago, urges spanking for "bluffing" school pupils. Claims society is periled by weakling women. Scores tango, tea and midnight suppers.

94,656 auto licenses issued last year. May reach 120,000 this season.

Dominick Dernardi, Glencoe, killed by C. & N. W. train.

Rose Touchisi, 4, 9229 Houston av., dead. Bonfire.

Ald. Nance urged protection of eyes. Would prohibit sale of air rifles, exploding golf balls and wood alcohol. Says one-half of blindness is avoidable.

Fourteen organizations of furniture manufacturers to form national federation.

St. Rita's Church, 6300 S. Oakley av., crowded. Many attending shrine for cures by relic.

Joseph Davis, 13, LaGrange, killed in bicycle collision.

$85,000 estate of Dr. James B. McFartrich goes to widow.

Utilities commission probing "L" railroad collision. Officials warned to exercise more care.

Levi H. Page, 78, 1657 W. Madison av., inventor, died in poverty after making fortunes for others.

Three fined $100 and costs, one $200 and one $25 and costs in gunmen cleanup as guntoters.

Peter Smoka up in Court of Domestic Relations for non-support. Wife offered hubby 25 cents a day spending money if he would work. Smoka ordered by judge to accept terms by June 16 or go to Bridewell.

Charles Hearle, 90, 2130 N. Robey st., wants court aid in selling furniture. Claims 83-year-old wife's craze for antiques kept him poor for 50 years.

Mrs. Charlotte Rhodus will address Chicago Single Tax Club, Friday, May 15, 8 p. m., at 64 W. Randolph st.

John A. Lewis, executor and trustee of John Alexander Dowie's estate, would wrest $1,000,000 Zion City property from Overseer Vollva.

Mrs. Jane Barnard, juvenile court officer, appointed arbitrator in home of Detrick Frederick, 2203 Keystone av. Father and sons occupy one camp, mother and daughter other. Family given until May 27 to sign peace treaty.

Police scored by South Chicago business women for failing to protect defenseless women.

Attorney Charles F. Hille freed on writ of supersedeas. Was given 120 days in jail for contempt.

Levi Kingsbury, 938 N. State st., suicided. Gas. Unemployed.

Lydia Jorgenson, 17, 1641 N. Kil-dare av., swallowed carbolic acid in